Pericles, Prince of Tyre, The Original Classic By William Shakespeare :
ANTIOCHUS Bring in our daughter, clothed like a bride, For the embracements even of Jove himself; At whose conception, till Lucina reignd, Nature this dowry gave, to glad her presence, The senate-house of planets all did sit, To knit in her their best perfections. Music. Enter the Daughter of ANTIOCHUS PERICLES See where she comes, appareld like the spring, Graces her subjects, and her thoughts the king Of every virtue gives renown to men! Her face the book of praises, where is read Nothing but curious pleasures, as from thence Sorrow were ever razed and testy wrath Could never be her mild companion. You gods that made me man, and sway in love, That have inflamed desire in my breast To taste the fruit of yon celestial tree, Or die in the adventure, be my helps, As I am son and servant to your will, To compass such a boundless happiness!
