

A Russian Affair (Penguin Great Loves)

When Gurov sees the lady with the little dog on a windswept promenade, he knows he must have her. But she is different from his other flings he cannot forget her Chekhovs stories are of lost love, love at the wrong time and love that can never be. United by the theme of love, the writings in the Great Loves series span over two thousand years and vastly different worlds. Readers will be introduced to loves endlessly fascinating possibilities and extremities: romantic love, platonic love, erotic love, gay love, virginal love, adulterous love, parental love, filial love, nostalgic love, unrequited love, illicit love, not to mention lost love, twisted and obsessional love
