

The Chesapeake: Tales & Scales: A collection of short stories from the pages of The Chesapeake

Join us as we visit the pages of The Chesapeake for action, fun and adventure in The Chesapeake region. Murder, Mayhem and Mystery along with blues, rockfish and Serendipity Serenades to convince fish to jump onto the hook. From Jack Rue, Fred McCoy and Pepper Langley come great stories about the Twentieth Century in Southern Maryland, from the Potomac to the Patuxent. Learn about the early days of the Patuxent River Naval Air Station and the boomtown of Lexington Park, called the Walled City. From Lou Clements to Steven Gore Uhler, our collection of short stories is sure to keep you entertained. Capn Larry Jarboes expertise in fish stories knows no equal! Join us as we explore the adventures of St. Georges Island as it breaks away from the mainland and drifts into the Potomac. The adventures of sailing are brought to life by Mark Robbins while Mel Brokenshire shows us the ways of the world. This first volume of the best of The Chesapeake wont leave you hanging and will have you running to your Kindle to learn when we will pull together the next round of prose and baloney. For those who thought Ocean City was the only destination in the summer, Alan Brylawski brings to life the glory days of the Point Lookout Hotel. Who can tell the stories of a Tidewater farmer like a farmer himself? Fred & Beth McCoy relate raising twelve children on a farm far away from the city with the mighty Potomac as their nearest byway. And remember, only The Shadow knows what evil lurks in the hearts of men!
