

Hamlet (Oregon Shakespeare Festival Audio Dramatization)

[This is the MP3CD audiobook format in vinyl case.]A 2011 Grammy Nominee for Best Spoken Word Album Blackstone Audio is proud to present the Oregon Shakespeare Festivals brilliant production of Shakespeares disturbing and psychologically rich masterpiece Hamlet. Whether youre a Hamlet scholar or being exposed to this work for the first time, this stunning work of audio theater -- fully dramatized with performances by the Oregon Shakespeare Festival cast (*based on the 2010 stage production directed by Bill Rauch) -- is a must-listen. In Denmark a king is dead. His brother, Claudius, has snatched the throne--and the widowed queen, yet life goes on -- for everyone but Prince Hamlet. The prince, fixated on his uncle as the murderer, is charged by his fathers ghost to avenge the wrong. Disconnected from the foul world around him, Hamlet strains under the weight of his task, descending into madness, both real and feigned.*Produced by Ira Burton
