

Hedda Gabler

Ibsen, considered to be the father of modern drama, was a Norwegian playwright. He is responsible for realistic drama. During the Victorian era Ibsen's writings were considered scandalous. Hedda and Jurgens are aristocratic newlyweds who have just returned from a 6 month honeymoon. Hedda is pregnant and Jurgens aunt has just arrived for a visit. Aunt Julie has raised Jurgens and Hedda's rudeness toward her is apparent. New arrivals to the house bring about many plot twists in this classic drama from Norway.
