

Helen of Troy and Other Poems (The classic love in Greek Mythology) with colorful picture Illustrated

Helen of Troy (Sparta) was perhaps the most inspired character in all literature, ancient or modern. A whole war, one which lasted for ten years, was fought over her. Not only that, nearly all the myths of the heroic age were threaded together in such a way that this most idealized of all wars was the culmination of various exploits, including the Argonaut, the Theban wars, and the Caledonian boar hunt. It is as though this event was in the destiny of every dynasty formed from the beginning of things.
