

Lonely Planet Tokyo (City Guide)

Maybe its wandering through the flashing forest of neon in Shibuya and Shinjuku. Sushi for breakfast at Tsukiji Fish Market. A shopping trip in Harajuku to check out the independent designers. Or maybe its as simple as a bowl of whisked green tea in a centuries-old garden. Wherever you find your Tokyo moment, one things for sure: this smart and streetwise guidebook has the city covered. Sleep In Style informative reviews of the best luxury hotels, traditional ryokan and top-value budget options make the decisions easy. Navigate With Ease clear and detailed maps with Japanese script take you where you want to go. Treat Yourself our authors have hand-picked the best designer wares, specialist music stores, tucked-away shopping streets and more. Feast Like A Local discerning reviews deliver the gems, from decadent kaiseki to mouth-watering sashimi. Escape For A Day head for the traditional temples of Nikko and Kamakura, or soak your bones in an onsen; our Excursions chapter has all the best tips.
