

Rilla of Ingleside: Unabridged Edition (The Anne of Green Gables Chronicles) (Volume 8)

In Rilla of Ingleside, the last part in the famous Anne of Green Gables chronicles, the daughter of Anne, a fun-loving girl of sixteen, finds herself plunged into the realities of 1914. One by one the three Blythe boys go off to war, one of them never to return. Then the two older girls enter Red cross work in the city, and Rilla is left alone with her parents. The end of the war finds Rilla grown-up and quite as charming as her mother was in the old Green Gables days. Old friends of earlier books reappear in the story which goes to show how an American girl at home in war time faced her problems.
