

Siddhartha, filho de um bramane, nasceu na Índia no século VI a.C. Passa a infância e a juventude isolado das misérias do mundo, gozando uma existência calma e contemplativa. A certa altura, porém, abdica da vida luxuosa, protegida, e parte em peregrinação pelo país, onde a pobreza e o sofrimento eram regra. Na sua longa viagem existencial, Siddhartha experimenta de tudo, usufruindo tanto as maravilhas do sexo, quanto o jejum absoluto. Entre os intensos prazeres e as privações extremas, termina por descobrir «o caminho do meio», libertando-se dos apelos dos sentidos e encontrando a paz interior. Em páginas de rara beleza, Siddhartha descreve sensações e impressões como raramente se consegue. Le-lo e deixar-se fluir como o rio onde Siddhartha aprende que o importante é saber escutar com perfeição.
