

Subway Dancer and Other Stories

SUBWAY DANCER AND OTHER STORIES is a new collection of gripping short fiction by Catherine Ryan Hyde, the bestselling author of many beloved novels, including DONT LET ME GO and PAY IT FORWARD, and of other critically acclaimed short story collections, including EARTHQUAKE WEATHER and ALWAYS CHLOE. A striking and emotionally resonant collection, SUBWAY DANCER AND OTHER STORIES is a compilation of stories originally published in some of the most respected literary magazines in the country, including The Antioch Review, Virginia Quarterly Review, Glimmer Train and Ploughshares.

In the award-winning story Bloodlines, two neighbors of different ethnicities are friends in spite of their differences until an argument about expensive purebred dogs versus mutts from the pound brings the whole neighborhood's precarious balance crashing down. Bloodlines was reprinted in Bark Magazine's best-selling anthology Dog is My Co-Pilot and was cited in Best American Short Stories. In Witness to Breath, a woman living a dangerous life working on the streets takes in an elderly dog left behind when his owner is killed in a robbery. Despite never having been a dog person, their brief relationship changes her in ways she never could have expected. In Disappearances, a man not fluent in his own emotions tries unsuccessfully to broadside a train in his pickup truck, then spends the rest of the story figuring out the first clue to why he'd try to do such a thing. Among the other riveting and beautifully crafted stories included in this collection, Five Singing Gardeners and One Dead Stranger and Requiem For a Flamer were nominated for the Pushcart Prize, and The Man Who Found You in the Woods was cited in Best American Short Stories. This collection includes an Authors Note by Catherine Ryan Hyde.
