

The Blithedale Romance

The Blithedale Romance is Nathaniel Hawthorne's third major romance. In Hawthorne, Henry James called it the lightest, the brightest, the liveliest of Hawthorne's unhumorous fictions. The novel takes place in the utopian community of Blithedale, presumably in the mid-1800s. The main character, Miles Coverdale, embarks on a quest for betterment of the world through the agrarian lifestyle and community of the Blithedale Farm.
