

The Call of the Wild (Annotated)

The Call of the Wild is a classic by Jack London published in 1903. The story is set in the Yukon during the 1890s Klondike Gold Rush period when strong sled dogs were in high demand. The novel's central character is a dog named Buck, a domesticated dog living at a ranch in the Santa Clara Valley of California as the story opens. Stolen from his home and sold into service as a sled dog in Alaska, he reverts to a wild state. Buck is forced to fight in order to dominate other dogs in a harsh climate. Eventually he sheds the veneer of civilization, relying on primordial instincts and learned experience to emerge as a leader in the wild. This edition has been formatted for your Kindle, with an active table of contents. This book is also annotated, with additional information about the novel as well as Jack London, including an overview, plot, background, publication history, genre, writing style, reception, biographical and bibliographical information.
