

The Encantadas Or Enchanted Isles: Short Story

The ten sketches comprising The Encantadas, or Enchanted Isles are based largely on author Herman Melville's experience in the Galapagos Islands, combined with the recorded history of the islands, local folklore, and sailors' stories. The earlier sketches present a daunting description of the islands and their fauna. Belying their tropical location, there is nothing of paradise in these volcanic remnants home to large numbers of lizards, snakes, and giant spiders and the Galapagos Islands are isolated, desolate, and uninhabitable. However, they are not without their idiosyncratic charm for Melville, and the later sketches tell the stories of some of those inhabitants: buccaneers, the dog-king of Charles Island, the Chola widow, and Oberlus, the hermit.
