

The Expatriates Handbook: Seoul, Korea

The Expatriate Handbook was compiled for the expatriate living in Seoul for a short, limited time only. The handbook takes an A to Z format providing information on everything, from locating day-to-day conveniences, to recreation, social and cultural information. It has been designed for the expatriate to receive a quicker, more thorough bearing and understanding of the city in which they live and work. It is hoped that the Handbook will allow individuals and families to settle more quickly and smoothly, having at their fingertips that concentration of information that will allow them to more significantly discover and enjoy Seoul during their time here.
