

The Picture of Dorian Gray

The Picture of Dorian Gray is Oscar Wildes only novel, but what a novel! Dorian Gray is a handsome young man who commissions a painting of himself by an artist named Basil Hallward. The artist is infatuated with Dorian, thinking the young mans beauty has brought about a major improvement in his art. When Dorian meets Lord Henry Wotton, a friend of the artists, Dorian comes to love Lord Henrys worldview: that the only things worth pursuing are beauty, and a hedonistic abandon to please the senses. Dorian, in a whimsical moment, says hed love to sell his soul to have Basils painting of him age instead of Dorian himself. That wish is granted, and Dorian lives a life of debauchery, the results of which are reflected in the painting. But no matter how well you play the game, theres always a price to pay...
