

The Raven

The Raven A narrative poem by Edgar Allan Poe. Published originally in January 1845, the poem has a musical quality with stylized language and a supernatural atmosphere. It speaks of a mysterious talking ravens visit to a distraught lover, depicting the mans slow fall into madness. The lover is lamenting the loss of his love, Lenore. Sitting on a bust of Pallas, the raven seems to have a purpose of further instigating his distress with its constant repetition of the word Nevermore. This poem makes good use of a number of folk and classical references.
