

The Vortex

I have, to my grief and loss, suppressed several notable stories of my friend, the Hon. A.M. Penfentyou, once Minister of Woods and Waysides in De Thouars first administration; later, Premier in all but name of one of Our great and growing Dominions; and now, as always, the idol of his own Province, which is two and one-half the size of England. For this reason I hold myself at liberty to deal with some portion of the truth concerning Penfentyous latest visit to Our shores. He arrived at my house by car, on a hot summer day, in a white waistcoat and spats, sweeping black frock-coat and glistening top-hat--a little rounded, perhaps, at the edges, but agile as ever in mind and body.
